

AMOS DUROSIER

Director General Unité de Lutte Anti Corruption

E-mail: adurosier@ulcc.gouv.ht

Abstract

Facing State building challenges, the Government of Haiti straightens recent advances to increase transparency and efficiency in the use of public resources and external assistance, bring notably changes in the legal framework for budget formulation and execution. Setting up critical agencies: new Procurement decree, implementation of an Anticorruption unit, Economic governance reform, promoting accountability and fighting corruption what are the lessons learnt from those effort

Biography of Presenter

Amos Durosier : Born in Haiti

Education B.A Philosophy (Montreal University), B.Th Theology (Ottawa University); M.Sc [Economics Montreal University], Doctoral studies [Economics Mc.Gill University].Law (L.LL) [Haiti State University]

Professor of Economics Montreal Quebec University (UQUAM) 1977-1981 and since 1981 Professor of Economics [Faculty of Law and Economics -Haiti State University.]

National Tax Commissioner (1983-1986) Direction Générale des Impôts-Haiti. Serve as an independent consultant since 1986 until 1995.

1995-2004 Executive Director PPROFAMIL a NGO working in the field of Population, Development and Family Planning Services Since 2004 to day: Director General Unité de Lutte Anti Corruption [ULCC] Past District Governor Rotary International District of Northern Caribbean [D7020]