

JOHN WILLIAMS

Chair of the Global Organization of Parliamentarians Against Corruption (GOPAC)

Phone: (613) 996-4722 Fax: (613) 995-8880 E-mail Williams.J@parl.gc.ca

Abstract

Abstract not received

Biography of Presenter

John Williams was first elected as a Member of Parliament to the House of Commons, Canada, on October 25th, 1993. He was re-elected to the House of Commons in 1997, 2000, 2004 and 2006. Mr. Williams served as the Chair of the House of Commons Standing Committee on Public Accounts from 1997 until 2005. Mr. Williams is the Chair of the Global Organization of Parliamentarians Against Corruption (GOPAC), an international organization of parliamentarians focused on improving the effectiveness of parliament as an institution of oversight and accountability. He is also the Chair of the Canadian chapter of GOPAC, Canadian Parliamentarians Against Corruption (CanPAC).