Biography of Presenter

Cardinal Uwishaka is CIVICUS Assistant Secretary General in charge of programmes. Cardinal is a Rwandan national and holds degrees in Public Administration and Human Rights Law from the universities of Rwanda, Zambia and South Africa. He has over 9 years of international development experience in a variety of socio-economic contexts. He gained his previous employment experience in Mozambique, Kosovo, Azerbaijan Zambia and Rwanda where he occupied positions of programme manager with a Zambian gender and development organisation (WFC) and country director with Oxfam GB. Cardinal's past experience centered on programme management, strategic planning, programme development and advocacy and campaigning. In his past programme management responsibilities, Cardinal managed significant change processes involving transition from large emergency programmes to rehabilitation and development programming. During his free time he undertook development consultancies with organisations in various African countries in the areas of programme development and strategic planning.
