Celebrate International Anti-Corruption Day 9 December 2012

International Anti-Corruption Day is celebrated annually on 9 December to honour the signing of the United Nations Convention Against Corruption in 2003.

On this day, the Public sector, business sector, non-governmental organisations, the media and citizens around the world are called upon to join forces to fight this crime. South Africa, as one of the signatories of the Convention, through the Public Service Commission, the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) jointly commemorate this day every year.

The theme for this year is
ACT AGAINST CORRUPTION TODAY.

All South Africans are encouraged to celebrate this day by blowing the whistle against corruption through using the National Anti-Corruption Hotline (NACH).

The NACH number is 0800 701 701.
